

ZIMMER+ROHDE

Product data sheet

According to an old Japanese legend, if you have folded 1000 cranes, you have a wish to the gods. Perhaps the same is true if you embroider them? This adaptation of a print by Lisa Grönwall from 1962 lets the birds fly on a lightweight GOTS-certified linen ground. The embroidery thread is made from an Ecovero viscose, which is obtained from certified renewable wood sources and has been awarded the EU Ecolabel.
